THURSDAY EVENING, APRIL 17.

ESCAPED CONVICTS .- A gang of ten convicts made a bold break and effected their escape at a point near Madison, N. C., where they were at work a few days ago. The guard who had charge of them was taking them to camp late in the evening and was walking behind them. As they were walking through a deep cut in the railroad grade, several of them got out of his sight behind a bank, and before he knew it had run around to his rear, pounced upon him and took his gun, a Smith and Wesson revolver and $72 in money which he has.

They then took to the woods, and left the helpless guard looking after them. They took a bee line for the Virginia border and have not been heard of since. The guard was so severely drubbed that he has not been on duty since.

There is some feeling of elation among the meet men, and one of them gives vent to his feelings in the following gem, which has some reason and sense in it, even if it is not good rhyme or poetry:

"No more inspection on Chicago beef, Very much to the inspectors' grief. Judge Hughes says the inspection has a terri-

A VETERAN.

I was wounded in the legat the battle of Stone River, Dec. 21st. 1862. My blood was poisoned from the effects of the wound, and the leg swelled to double its natural size, and remained so for many years. The poison extended to my whole system, and I suffered a thousand deaths. Nothing did me any good until I took Swift's Specific, which took the poison out of my system, and enabled me to feel myself a man again. S. S. Is the remedy for blood poison.
